THE INDIAN WAR DISCUSSION.

The Election Bill Comes Up in the Senate and Interrupts the Indian Discussion. The Copyright Bill in the House—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—In the senate yesterday a long and interesting discussion took place on the subject of the threatened Indian war apropos of a joint resolution to issue arms to the states of North and South Dakota and Nebraska. Mr. Voorhees having charged the situation to the fact of the Indians being starved to hostilities.

Mr. Dawes said he doubted the statement that the starving condition of some Indians was the cause of the present trouble or that rations would be a cure for it.

Mr. Pierce said that the red man seemed to get more hungry as well as more noble the farther people got away from him. [Laughter]. He questioned the statement attributed to Gen. Miles that a large number of Indians were starving.

The debate was interrupted at 2 o'clock by the election bill coming up as the unfinished business. Mr. Hoar, in charge of the bill, said that in view of the fact that on reporting the bill at the close of the last session he had addressed the senate upon it he would now forego any opening of the debate, but would content himself with answering whatever objections should be made to the bill on the Democratic side of the chamber.

Mr. Turpie thereupon opened the discussion in opposition.

The substitute measure, he said, rested for its support on what was called the suppressed colored Republican vote in the south. The returns of the election showed an abstinence from voting. An abstinence much greater in Massachusetts and other northern states than elsewhere. The extremists with a meager majority in both houses said this was proof enough of the suppression of the colored vote. And thereupon proceeded to revolutionize the whole method of congressional elections.

There had been a suppression—a suppression patent, well known, undeniable and widely prevalent.

The recent census would show that in the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, there were about 250,000 colored people; yet in those states no colored man had ever served as governor or been elected to any department of the state government. There had been not only no proportional division of the offices—the colored had been none at all.

The suppression of the colored vote in the south was a thing manifestly in question affirmed on one side and denied on the other, but the suppression of the colored voter of the north was a thing without question.—Actual, absolute, unconditional. He then proceeded to make a constitutional argument against the power of congress to pass a law regular the election of representatives in the lower house of congress. Not having this power itself, it could not delegate it to Federal election boards.

Should this bill become a law, the investor would find in many places in the south no shares, dividends and income, but chilled furnaces, idle mills and smoking ruins. At the conclusion of Mr. Turpie's speech, the senate at 3:25 adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—After the reading of the journal in the house the speaker stated the pending business to be the further consideration of the copyright bill.

Mr. Simonds, of Connecticut, expressed his readiness to yield any time the bill's opponents might desire.

Mr. Springer argued that the bill changed the tariff law in so far as the importation of books was concerned. So that the first effort after the McKinley bill and after the election was to make it more impossible to import articles from abroad.

Mr. Peters, of Kansas, expressed his opposition to the character of legislation involved in the bill.

Mr. Beckwith, of Kentucky, did not believe that cheaper books could be obtained, than could be obtained under this bill, but even if they could this was a matter of justice and honesty.

Mr. Farnsworth, of New York, said that the intention of the bill was public honesty.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, said that the moral sense of the American people would be outraged unless this bill passed.

Mr. Kerr, of Iowa, opposed the bill.

Mr. Cummings, of New York, declared that the bill was demanded by the laboring classes.

Mr. Butterworth, of Ohio, supported the bill. Whenever, he said, the time came that ideas—thinking—had no money value, we would become a nation of "chumps." [Laughter].

A motion to recommit the bill with instructions was lost—yeas 95, nays 140. The vote on the passage of the copyright bill was: Yeas 130, nays 95; so the bill was passed.

The house then took up the bill to extend the responsibility for pension money of minors to all persons acting in a fiduciary capacity toward those minors and it was debated for some time.

A motion to refer the judiciary committee was beaten ($8 to 101) and the house then at 4:35 adjourned.

Purchase of Silver Bullion.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Mr. Taylor, of Illinois, introduced in the house yesterday a joint resolution to provide for the purchase of silver bullion and to confine such purchases to the products of the United States. The bill directs the secretary of the treasury to purchase, thirty days after the passage of this resolution, silver bullion to the aggregate amount of $18,000,000 ounces, or so much thereof as may be offered for sale, at the market price, not exceeding one dollar for three hundred and seventy-one and twenty-five one hundredths grains of pure silver and to pay for such silver in treasury notes. The silver purchased under this act is to be in addition to the amount purchased monthly under the act of July, 1890, and the silver purchased under this act, July, 1890, shall hereafter be limited to silver bullion the product of mines of the United States, or of ores or base metals smelted or refined in the United States.

A NOBLE WORK.

The National Mary Washington Memorial Association Ask Aid.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Dec. 4.—Mrs. David Mend Massie, the wife of state Senator Massie, and vice president for the state of Ohio of the National Mary Washington Memorial Association has issued a appeal to the women of the state for aid in securing funds for the erection of a monument to the mother of our first president. Mrs. Massie is charged with securing funds in this state for the purpose of the corporation. It is the desire of the association to have as many persons as possible to contribute toward the cause, and any sum, no matter how small, will be gladly received.

Mrs. Massie is endeavoring to interest ladies in the various parts of Ohio in this movement, and will doubtless succeed in enlisting many earnest supporters. Hon. Charles Foster, ex-governor of Ohio has consented to act as president. Mrs. Massie is charged with securing funds in this state for the purpose of the corporation. It is the desire of the association to have as many persons as possible to contribute toward the cause, and any sum, no matter how small, will be gladly received.

The acting commissioner of Indian affairs yesterday afternoon received the following telegram from Indian Agent Dixon at Chamberlain, S. Dak. "No change since last report. Eleven in jail. Quarter inadequate, seven more imminent being leaders. Grant authority to station eight police and feed for horses during this trouble. No military arrived yet. No need of any military to prevent trouble. I can handle it."

INDIAN SITUATION.

Latest Reports Sent to Washington.

NO GREAT CHANGE AT ROSEBUD.

Three Regiments of Infantry Ordered to the Front—The Cold Weather Has a Quelling Effect Upon the Unruly Redskins.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The only dispatch received at the war department this morning bearing on the Indian situation, was from the Rosebud agency. All was reported quiet there. The absence of dispatches from Pine Ridge and Standing Rocke Indian agencies is regarded at the war department as an evidence that the situation is no worse and probably better than it was.

Orders were yesterday issued from the war department directing the First, Fifth and Seven, regiments of infantry proceed at once to the neighborhood of the Rosebud agency. The First and Seventh regiments will proceed first to Omaha and then await further orders as to the exact location to which they will proceed.

The acting commissioner of Indian affairs yesterday afternoon received the following telegram from Indian Agent Dixon at Chamberlain, S. Dak. "No change since last report. Eleven in jail. Quarter inadequate, seven more imminent being leaders. Grant authority to station eight police and feed for horses during this trouble. No military arrived yet. No need of any military to prevent trouble. I can handle it."

Frosting the Fight Out.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 4.—The Indians are commencing to shiver and the threatened uprising will be postponed if the cold weather continues. At Rapid City, near the Rosebud agency, the thermometer ranges 8 degrees above zero; Fort Sully 6 degrees above and Bismarck 2 degrees above.

Troops on the Move.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 4.—The Sixth cavalry, consisting of nineteen officers, 335 men and 360 horses, arrived yesterday afternoon from Fort Wingate, on their way to Fort Meade to the Black Hills. They were paid off here before leaving to the extent of $7,000. They have been fourteen years in New Mexico and glad to get a change. Some of the old Indian fighters are among the officers and men. Two companies of infantry left at Fort Wingate will be reinforced by a troop of cavalry from Whipple barracks. Gen. Carr, commander of the Sixth cavalry, interviewed, said he thought there would be no trouble with the Navajos or Apaches.

HOTEL BUILDING BURNED.

Two People Burned to Death in a Pittsburgh Fire.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 4.—Fire at midnight last night burned the building at the corner of Penn avenue and Ninth street. There were about forty occupants in the building at the time, two of whom, Mr. Irwin, the janitor, and his wife were burned to death. The fire caught in the basement and ascended up the flues of the heater to the third and fourth floors.

There were many thrilling escapes from the burning building, but it is thought no others were seriously burned. The building was occupied by the employees of the Hotel Anderson as an annex, of whom there were sixteen in the building at the time. Loss, $25,000; insurance not known.

KENTUCKY TRAGEDY.

A Saloon Keeper Fatally Shoots a Woman and Then Rebels Arrest.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Dec. 4.—George Burgess, a saloon keeper, late Tuesday evening, shot and fatally wounded Miss Alice McKinley, at her home, supposed in a lover's quarrel.

A posse attempted to arrest Burgess after he had barricaded himself in the saloon, and broke in the door. Burgess fired on them and the fire was returned. Burgess was killed and two of the posse—Joseph Webb and James Cates—wounded. Webb has since died. The tragedy has created intense excitement all through this section. Nothing equaling it has ever occurred here.

Confessed to Murder.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—About 11 o'clock a man giving his name as William H. Smith, alias W. H. Russell, approached Officer Donohoo on Sycamore street, near Fourth, and stated that he was a murderer, having killed Robert Sanders on Oct. 14, 1878, at Paint Lick, Madison county, Ky. He said that Detective Norris had been after him for two years and that in that time he had passed Norris several times without being recognized. He was taken to Central police station and locked up on suspicion.

Arrested for Infanticide.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 4.—Minnie Mabbitt, alias Minnie Jones, and her brothers, Monte and Oris Mabbitt, were arrested yesterday for the murder of little Merlie Mabbitt, the illegitimate offspring of Minnie Mabbitt, which was found in Eagle creek, about a week ago. She charges a Cleveland insane asylum attendant with being the father.

Finally Gave Up.

PASADENA, N. J., Dec. 4.—The Rittenhouse manufacturing mills here has failed with liabilities of about $800,000. The assets of the firm are stated to be about $20,000 less. The failure was brought about by the embarrassment of other houses and the low prices prevailing in the wool market. The company has been in a shaky condition for a year or more.

A Detained King.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The wind has been blowing a gale for the past twenty-four hours, and no vessels have been able to pass the port. The United States steamer Swatara started out to meet the Charleston, which has King Kalakaua aboard, but was unable to get outside owing to the heavy weather.

Finally Gave Up.

PASADENA, N. J., Dec. 4.—The Rittenhouse manufacturing mills here has failed with liabilities of about $800,000. The assets of the firm are stated to be about $20,000 less. The failure was brought about by the embarrassment of other houses and the low prices prevailing in the wool market. The company has been in a shaky condition for a year or more.

Dying Man Shoots Himself.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 4.—Martin Mergel, a prominent young man about town, shot himself through the head at noon yesterday, killing him instantly. He has been despondent for some months; was slowly dying of consumption, and was unwilling to be a burden to his friends.

Five Firemen Injured.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 4.—A special from Oxford, Ala., reports fire in that place at 8 o'clock this morning. The Arlington hotel, the stores of J. H. Bailey, L. B. Meller, F. O. W. Cooper and three store houses of F. C. Humphrey were burned. The total loss on buildings and goods was $30,000; insurance, $20,000. Five firemen were badly injured.

FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

The Second Day of the National Convention at Ocala, Florida.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 4.—At the Farmers' Alliance convention yesterday morning a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of one from each state delegation to investigate the conduct of Dr. Macune, chairman of the National executive committee; L. F. Livingstone, president of the Georgia state alliance, and President Polk, in reference to the charges against these gentlemen that they were influenced in their action regarding the senatorship by money considerations. The committee is also empowered to investigate any charges which may be brought against these officers.

It seems evident that a fight on the sub-treasury plan will arise. It is claimed by some that this is class legislation and violates the Alliance constitution as regards to equal rights and special privileges.

The reports of the National secretary treasury and executive board were not submitted at the morning session as promised.

Resolutions were offered providing for changes in the constitution as to the eligibility to membership for election to the legislative council and for redefining franchises so as to make the convention a strictly representative body.

At last evening's session of the National Farmers' Alliance the report of the committee on credentials was received. A press committee was appointed which alone is authorized to give out information.

Other committees appointed were on President Polk's message on order of business, on mileage and per diem, and on fraternal relations. The last named committee is an important one, and its duty is to receive representatives from other National organizations similar in character, with a view of securing concerted action on legislation, etc., and aiming at the ultimate consolidation of them all. As Mr. Powderly is expected here this morning, the committee will doubtless have an early conference with him.

The night session adjourned at 10:45 p. m.

TERRIBLE STORM.

A Number of Vessels Ashore and Will Prove Total Wrecks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A special to The Herald from St. Pierre, Miquelon, says:

There has been three days of terrible storm, tempest and hurricane. On Saturday four vessels parted their chains and came ashore, and will prove total wrecks. The crews were saved. On Sunday the storm somewhat abated, and there was no damage to shipping.

On Monday night, however, a hurricane set in, and inflicted great damage. About ten schooners are high and dry around the harbor, with the winter fleet, moored for winter quarters, badly damaged. The steamer St. Pierre was to have sailed Tuesday, but remained in port until the weather becomes settled.

Barbers Get Together.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 4.—The real business of the international barbers' convention which convened in this city Tuesday, was commenced yesterday morning. The session opened at 9 o'clock with William Hain, of Toledo, president, and A. Meyers, of Grand Rapids, secretary. There will be three sessions a day with closed doors. The election of permanent officers of the association and the selection of city for holding the next meeting will take place to-morrow and the body will probably adjourn to-morrow evening. Denver, Col., seems to be in the lead as the next place.

The Irish Envoy.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—All but two of the Irish envoy are still at the Grand Pacific hotel. Messrs. Gill and Sullivan left yesterday for Dayton, O., where they are to speak. Mr. O'Connor had an engagement at Duluth, but wired there last night that it would have to be broken, because he could not leave here until the trouble was settled. Messrs. Dillon, O'Brien and Harrington are still at the Pacific hotel, and give out nothing for publication except the fact that they are still at sea.

In the Supreme Court.

ALBANY, Dec. 4.—Warden Brush, of Sing Sing prison, was notified by telegraph yesterday by Attorney General Tabor that the allowances of the appeal by United States District Judge Brown in the Wood case will operate in the nature of a stay until the United States supreme court either dismisses the appeal or disposes of it upon its merits.

Boys Arrested.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 4.—Valentine Dixon, a young stone mason, caused the arrest yesterday of George and Elmer Kiefer on the charge of assault and battery. They are large boys and were arrested for setting fire to the clothing of Dixon's 3-year-old boy.

Acquitted of Forgery.

CANDEA, N. J., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Julia Cullin Lippincott, at one time proprietress of Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, characterized by Prosecutor Jenkins as the most skillful pen woman in the state was acquitted of the charge of forgery last night.

Woman Burned to Death.

DELPHI, Ind., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Mary Turpie, mother of Senator David Turpie, was burned to death near this place yesterday. She was arranging the fire in an old-fashioned fire place when her clothing was ignited. She was nearly 90 years of age.

Capt. Robinson Dying.

MADISON, Ind., Dec. 4.—Capt. Don Carlos Robinson, the famous boat builder and superintendent of the Madison ship yards, is dying here.

Four Thousand Dollar Fire Loss.

LIMA, O., Dec. 4.—Fire at West Cairo destroyed the Hughes & Riley building. Loss, $1,000; no insurance.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1890.

LIGHTER taxes, cheaper living, free raw materials for manufacturers and wider markets. These are the things the Democrats are fighting for, and judging by the recent election the people are with the party.

REPUBLICANS may think their late defeat was caused by the fact that the people didn't understand the McKinley bill, but they oughtn't complain. They wouldn't allow a full and free discussion when the matter was before Congress.

SEVERAL Kentucky Congressmen failed to put in an appearance on the re-assembling of the Solons, among them Messrs. Carnth, Dickerson, Paynter, Ellis and Montgomery. The Courier-Journal correspondent in mentioning the matter, says: "Friends of Mr. Paynter had sent a basket of roses to him, and the beautiful flowers rested on his desk all day."

An exchange calls attention to the fact that the old charge by Republicans that all efforts to purify the ballot were resisted by Democrats is pretty well exploded. The opposition to the Australian ballot is confined almost exclusively to Republicans. Ballot reform has been twice defeated in Maine. The Republicans defeated it in New Hampshire and Pennsylvania, and they succeeded in making it almost inoperative in Connecticut.

Democrats know they will lose nothing by a secret ballot. Such a system will put a stop to corruption at the polls, and go far to purify the ballot. No wonder a party that numbers among its leaders such men as Quay, Dudley, Clarkson, &c., is opposed to such a law.

THE Committee on Elections, in the Con. Con., has reported in favor of the Australian ballot system and recommends that no more than one election each year shall be held in this State, or in any city, town, district or county thereof. That all elections shall be held on the first Monday in November; that any person who is convicted of having procured his election by the use of money shall be disqualified from holding any office of trust or profit for the time for which he shall have been elected. That where registration is required only those who have registered shall vote.

These are excellent provisions, and should be adopted. We want something like the Australian ballot system, and we want fewer elections.

NEARLY 600,000 claims have already been filed under the Dependant Pension bill passed last June, and it is estimated that by the end of another fiscal year the number will be about 900,000. "The total annual expenditure which these claims, exclusive of all other pensions, will cause is estimated at $64,800,000," says the New York, Herald. "Of these claims ninety-six per cent. are filed through attorneys. At the rate allowed by the law, $10 for each case, the fees of attorneys under this act alone will amount to $5,640,000.

"By the end of another fiscal year, the new act and the operation of the old acts will have increased our pension expenditures to more than $200,000,000 a year. And this new act was not passed at the demand or desire of the old soldiers, but at the instigation of the pension attorneys."

A Railroad's Liability for Killing Stock.

In reversing the case of The Contracting and Building Company versus Biggs, from Greenup, the Court of Appeals says:

First—The statutory presumption of negligence on the part of a railroad company arising from the killing of stock by its cars is overcome, and the law is for the company, when either the employees of the company in charge of the train or disinterested eye-witnesses testify to the facts, and show by their testimony that there was no negligence.

Second—The paramount duty of those in charge of a train is to prevent injury to the train and its contents, and although injury to stock on or near the track cannot be averted without stopping the train, it is the duty of those in charge of the train not to stop it if it cannot be stopped with safety to passengers.

Third—It is only where stock are on the track or in close proximity to it that those in charge of a train are required to stop it, or even to lessen the speed in order to prevent injury to the stock.

Here and There.

Miss Jessie Wood, of Covington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Cason.

Mrs. Robert Cummings left this morning to visit her aunt, Mrs. Dr. James Shackleford, of Lexington.

Mrs. T. H. Senteney and little daughter, Carrie, accompanied her husband to Huntington, W. Va., to be gone for a few weeks.

Mrs. A. C. Campbell, of Nashville, Tenn., sister of Lieutenant Governor Bryan, is visiting her many relatives in this city.

WEDDED AT FOUR.

The Christian Church the Scene of Pretty Afternoon Nuptials.

Mr. Walter S. Watson and Miss Lida Mitchell United in the Bonds of Matrimony.

The Christian Church on East Third street was crowded yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and when the throng separated a few minutes later, a happy young couple had plighted their vows at the marriage altar and gone out to share the joys of this life and bear its burdens together.

It was a pretty afternoon wedding, and the friends and relatives of the high contracting parties, Mr. Walter S. Watson and Miss Lida Mitchell, were there in numbers to witness the nuptials.

As usual, the church was prettily decorated for the occasion. Kind hands had deftly arranged the altar with flowers and evergreens, intertwined with vines; low-burning gas jets and two large stand lamps shed a mellow light over the scene. The ushers were Dr. Harry S. Wood and Messrs. H. Lloyd Watson, Charles Mitchell and H. C. McDougle, and Miss Paddock presided at the organ.

Promptly at 4 o'clock, as the sweet music of the wedding march filled the church, the bridal party entered and passed down the right aisle, preceded by two of the ushers, the other two ushers passing down the left aisle. The happy couple that were soon to be linked by the silken cords of wedlock were met in front of the altar by the pastor of the church, Elder C. S. Lucas, and here beneath a canopy of evergreens, the vows were plighted, the abbreviated Episcopal service being used.

The newly wedded were passengers, shortly after the ceremony, on the west-bound F. F. V. for Cincinnati. On their return they will be "at home" at the Central Hotel, having taken rooms at that popular hostelry. Both bride and groom are prominent in Maysville's social circles, and are popular among their many friends. The groom is the oldest son of the late Colonel John W. Watson, and is now a member of the firm of Watson Bros., wholesale liquor merchants.

The lovely bride is a daughter of Mrs. Andrew Mitchell of East Third street. She was attired in an elegant costume of electric blue broadcloth trimmed in coque feathers and silk passementerie, with hat to match. She carried in her hand a fan of real ostrich feathers. The groom wore the conventional suit of black.

The couple were the recipients of a large number of elegant wedding souvenirs.

Interesting Items About Railways.

The gross earnings of eighty-nine roads for the second week in November were $7,500,800, an increase of $423,530 over 189. During the third week in November fifty-two railroads earned $5,326,648, as compared with $5,033,178 last year.

Manager Simmons, of the Cleveland Car Service Association, shows by his last report that the roads have been enabled to do 25 per cent. more business by reason of the operations of the association. It is claimed the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago, now being built, will strike the Ohio River at Catlettsburg instead of at Ashland.

It is said Huntington, the railroad magnet, never has any fun. One who knows him well says: "He sits over his desk with a little skull cap on his head and figures and writes from morning till late at night. He never thinks or talks of anything outside of the world of business, and the only remark I ever heard him make beyond the strict line of our financial relations was one day about two years ago, when he suddenly startled me by announcing curtly, that 'no man ought to be out of bed after 10 o'clock at night.'"

VERY APPROPRIATE.

The Kentucky Home Cook Book—New and Revised Edition.

This book has become so popular that no introduction to the public is needed. It is a book of receipts contributed, after tests proving their excellence, by Kentucky ladies, which is a guarantee of its merit.

The receipts have been compiled under the auspices of the Mite Society of the M. E. Church, South, Maysville.

It has become very popular and is having a large sale.

It is a very appropriate and suitable thing for a Christmas present to a lady. Price, $1.50.

It may be found at:

Kackley & McDougle's, Second street; J. C. Pecor's drug store, Second street; Miss Lou Powling's millinery store, Second street.

Miss Lulu M. Orr, who has been visiting here some time, returns this afternoon to her home at Cincinnati.

SCHOOL NOTES.

SCIENCE HILL—NO. 38.

This school takes the place of the old Ash Ridge school which was destroyed by fire. The trustees are Charles Smoot, John Boulden and Garrett Donovan. The teacher is Miss Bettie Mitchell, a lady of fine bearing and who presides over her school with decided skill. The school is small at present, but will increase. The scholars recite their lessons well, and are a well behaved, orderly class, paying good attention and seeming very diligent about their lessons.

FRANKLIN—NO. 9.

Here is another old classical ground. Old Franklin has been in charge of many eminent teachers in past years. It is a good building, with large playground handsomely set in grass and evergreens. It deserves better care than it is receiving. It needs repair, and the grounds should be enclosed with a neat fence, a good substantial gate, and all nicely painted. Attention to these details would do much for the elevation of our schools in the eyes of the public and of teacher and pupils. Let the scholars carry and maintain sweet recollections of a beautiful school lawn "all dressed in living green." How many a tender memory would be cheered by these remembrances when perhaps in far distant lands.

The trustees of Franklin are Jos. A. Scott, Leander Thompson and J. J. Thompson. The teacher is J. T. Tarleton. Mr. Tarleton has a reputation as a teacher in this county. This is his first year at Franklin. I was glad to find the school in such good hands. Classes in reading and in grammar recited well, and the school of thirty scholars was entirely orderly and excellent in deportment. It is an admirable location for a first-class school, and as such it will be maintained no doubt by the patrons and others who must feel a pride in this old institution. Only criticism I could reasonably make is, the teacher gives too much assistance to the pupils in their recitation.

Vegetables as Medicine.

Spinach has a direct effect upon the kidneys.

Beets and turnips are excellent appetizers.

Tomatoes act upon the liver and asparagus purges the blood.

Lettuce and cucumbers are cooling in their effects upon the system.

Common dandelion used as greens is excellent for kidney troubles.

Celeri acts admirably upon the nervous system, and is a cure for rheumatism and neuralgia.

A soup made from onions is regarded by the French as an excellent restorative in the debility of the digestive organs.

Red onions are an excellent diuretic, and the white ones are recommended to be eaten raw as a remedy for insomnia.

Onions, garlic, leeks, olives and shallots possess medicinal virtue of a very marked character, stimulating the muscular system, and the consequent increase in the saliva and the gastric juice promoting digestion.

Frills of Fashion.

It is going to be the fashion to wear small bonnets at the theaters.

Trimmings vary little this winter, being confined in most cases to velvet and feathers.

Brunettes are wearing scarlet more than ever this season in the bonnet and muff and at the throat.

Real lace, old and new, will have a foremost place among the costly dress trimmings of the season.

Lace fichus give a picturesque and distinguished air to a dress that would otherwise look insignificant.

The plainer the decoration and the finer the kid the handsomer the glove becomes for women's wear.

Tea gowns have become very simple garments since the designers have ceased to ring the changes on sleeves.

The latest imported hat resembles a tambourine. It is trimmed in almost the same fashion as the holero.

Raisins may be easily stoned by pouring boiling water over them and letting them stand for five or ten minutes. Drain, then rub each raisin between the thumb and finger till the seeds come out clean.

FIRST ONLY!

FIRST IN LOW PRICES.

FIRST IN QUALITIES.

FIRST IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

We are the first in low prices because we have the advantage of getting quantity discounts, in addition to cash discounts, and give our customers the benefit of these.

We are first in qualities because we have the whole field of manufacturers to select from; we call from the very best of these, and the world cannot surpass them. This makes us first hands to the people--we are no "middle man"--our customers get from us the benefits of the profits of the "middle man." We do not buy of jobbers. We know no middle condition. The "middle man" is a relic of the moss-covered past.

We are first in the interests of the people because our system, from which we never vary, of necessity works to their interest. Our unalterable rule is cash and one price. We treat all alike in respect to prices. We charge Mr. Smith, who has no Bank account, just the same for a pair of shoes that we charge Mr. Jones, the coupon clipper, for a similar pair. We do not burden the people with debts. We have no credit customers of the "good" class to saddle with percentage for delinquencies, making them carry our bad debts.

We have no shelf-worn goods, no "crabs" or "trash." Our goods are new; we do not permit them to get old--our prices force them to go.

The cheapest, the newest, the best. Come and see us; we will save you money.

DECEMBER 1, Pauline E. Littleton was granted a divorce at Flemingsburg from her second husband, Peter Littleton. On the next day she and James Saunders were married by the County Judge of Fleming. Saunders had been employed by her as a farm hand.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer published a sensational article yesterday, the substance of which is that Pascal B. Lang, late of the Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat, deserted Miss Mildred Mitchell Tuesday afternoon, the date on which she claims he had promised to marry her. Miss Mitchell formerly lived at Dover, and her mother now resides there. The article also states that Lang has lost heavily lately in grain speculations, and is a financial wreck, and that he was quietly married some days ago to Miss Etta Markley, of Georgetown, O.

"A GRAND TIME"

Did the Members of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., Have Last Night.

Their Silver Anniversary Celebrated in An Imposing Manner. What Was Done.

Yourselves and lady are courteously invited to attend the 25th annual banquet of Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., on Wednesday evening, Dec. 3rd, 1890, at 8 o'clock.

Such was the invitation sent out a few weeks ago and the Masonic Temple, brilliantly lighted, was thronged last night by the Sir Knights and ladies who responded.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the anniversary exercises, which were held in the Army Inn, were opened with prayer by Sir Kt. Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., Prelate. Following is the programme:

Overture..... Michael's Orchestra
Vocal Quartette—Dr. Strode, Mrs. Stanley Lee, Mrs. C. M. Russell, Geo. W. Sulser.

Welcome Address..... Judge G. S. Wall
Anniversary Address—Martin H. Sulser, P. C. of Kentucky.

Vocal Trio—Dr. Strode, Mrs. Stanley Lee, Geo. W. Sulser.

Vocal Solo..... Mrs. Stanley Lee

Xylophone Solo..... By member of Orchestra

Presentation to H. M. Smith of Golden Jewel

by Sir Knight Judge W. P. Coons.

The jewel referred to was an elegant golden badge showing a representation of the Masonic Temple, with the name of recipient inscribed on it. All the other members of the Commandery were presented with an elegant silver souvenir of like description.

After an intermission of half an hour, the Sir Knights formed in line and with their lady guests repaired to the banquet hall, where they feasted on the good things that had been prepared.

At the conclusion of the banquet, the following toasts were responded to, Sir Knight R. L. Browning, E. C., acting as Toastmaster:

"The Ladies"—Sir Kt. G. S. Wall, P. E. C.

"The Grand Encampment of the United States of America"—Sir Kt. W. LaRue Thomas, Gran Generalissimo.

"Our Non-Resident Members"—Rev. Sir Kt. H. R. Blaiddell, of Wheeling, W. Va.

"Ancient Craft Masonry"—Rev. Sir Kt. J. Wright.

"Maysville Commandery"—Sir Kt. H. P. McIlvain, P. E. C.

"Christian Knighthood"—Rev. Sir Kt. Thomas Hanford, D. D.

"The Guest of the Evening"—Sir Kt. Martin H. Smith, P. G. C., of Connecticut.

Eminent Commander Browning then proposed as the closing toast "Our Dead," which was drunk by the Knights standing and in silence.

The guests returned to the Asylum, where the younger Knights and ladies indulged in the dance until a late hour to music by Michael's Orchestra, of New York.

Among the Sir Knights and ladies present from a distance were W. J. Wash and wife and J. H. Ewart, of Paris; A. C. Ball and Jno. M. Bedford, Millersburg; P. Brubaker and wife, J. C. Hopkins and wife, and Misses Minnie Hopkins and Mary Kinney all of Oatletburg; W. C. Hagar and wife and Miss Lizzie Oxley, Frank L. Miller and wife and Miss Alberta Miller of Ashland; P. S. Marcon and wife, L. T. Everett, M. N. Graham, and Miss Mollie Graham of Oatletburg; R. J. Pritchard and wife, F. F. Freeze and wife, of Louisa; R. M. Reed, of Grayson; G. W. Bruce and wife, of Vanceburg, H. R. Blaiddell, of Wheeling, W. Va.; J. M. Hawley and wife, of Forman Springs; W. L. Sutherland and John H. Hall and wife, of Covington; Dr. J. H. Wade and wife and Mrs. W. W. Patterson, and J. W. Dameron and wife and Mrs. Williamson, of Ashland and John Peed, of Millersburg.

Maysville Commandery No. 10 was instituted November 24, 1865. It started with eleven members, and met for years in a small dingy hall in the court house. In 1887, it moved into its elegant quarters in the Masonic Temple. The Commandery has grown wonderfully of late years, and now has one hundred and ninety members, being one of the first in the State and having an enviable reputation far and wide.

Sir Kt. M. H. Smith, now of Hartford, Conn., was the first to preside over it as Eminent Commander. Since then the following have held the position: Sir Kt. H. R. Blaiddell, Robert Bissett, John B. Gibson, Horace January, Garrett S. Wall, S. S. Riley, Alfred E. Cole, Frank S. Owens, Lewis Apperson, Lewis E. Pearce, W. F. Coons, John W. Watson, E. A. Robinson, John L. Whitaker and H. P. McIlvain, Sir Knight R. L. Browning now holding the position. Of these Sir Knights Smith and January are Past Grand Commanders.

The anniversary banquets of the Commandery have always proved enjoyable events and the one last night was no exception.

For the Farmer

The Mark Lane Express tabulates some of the prices realized by Merino stud rams at various sales there. In 1883, at Queensland, $1,325 was the highest price. In 1884 the highest for a ram was $985. In 1885, in Tasmania, $475 was given for a ram. In 1886, $215 was the highest price paid. In 1887, a ram sold for $605 in Tasmania. In 1888, $660 was the best price paid. In 1889 the highest price reached was $885, and another one sold for $645. While in 1890 one sold for $1,600.

Weil matched and handsome thoroughly broken carriage horses bring in the New York City market from $800 to $1,800 the pair. Teams of horses for trucks, express wagons and heavy hauling bring from $610 to $850, while a good riding horse can be sold for anywhere from $450 to $1,000. The market for heavy hauling horses keeps up well all the year

Religious.

The Baptists dedicated a new church at Erlanger Sunday.

The highest salary paid a preacher in New York city is $19,000.

Rev. Joe Evans' meeting at Houston, near Millersburg, resulted in twenty-three additions.

Services at Central Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3:30 and to-night at 7 o'clock. Preaching by Rev. I. S. McElroy. One more addition last night.

There are in Cincinnati 187 churches, with a total membership of 139,886. The net gain in ten years has been 43,912, which is almost equal to the gain in population in the same period.

Elder Philip S. Fall Dead.

Elder Philip S. Fall, a pioneer minister of the Christian Church, died yesterday morning at his home in Frankfort. He was a native of England, and was ninety-two years of age. Seventy years of his life were spent in the service of the church.

The Courier-Journal says: "A noble Christian gentleman, a purer Christian preacher and teacher, never had down his cross and ascended to his God, and, despite of his advanced age, his death will be a shock to the religious community over which he had for seventy years exercised a most peculiar and beneficial influence."

A New Planing Mill

The cooper shop on the north side of Second street, just east of the bridge, is being moved to the "Old Gold" Mills, and the two frame cottages adjoining the shop will be moved soon, one to Bank street and the other to a lot in the East End.

Messrs. W. B. Mathews & Co. have purchased the ground on which these buildings now stand, and it is learned that it is the intention of the firm to erect a large planing mill on the site.

Seriously Burned.

Charley Adams, aged about fourteen, was dangerously burned yesterday afternoon at the home of his mother in "Smoky Hollow." While attempting to get some article from a mantel his clothing caught fire from the grate, and only prompt work of the neighbors saved the lad's life. He was attended by Dr. Owens who pronounces the injuries serious but not fatal. His mother is a widow, and works in the cotton mills.

MINER'S AXIMS

A good UNDERSTANDING is the foundation of knowledge.

A wise man is, therefore, known by his Shoes.

The men who buy their Shoes at MINER'S are all wise. They have cut their Wisdom Teeth, and having profited by experience, never think of buying Shoes elsewhere.

Once people bought Webster's Dictionary and thought that because it lay upon their parlor table that they would absorb knowledge without effort, much the same as we inhale the atmosphere.

Other people take a college course for the purpose of securing knowledge.

Now-a-days people who wish to be truly wise carefully read Miner's Maxims, and the nuggets of virgin truth there found widen their horoscope of ideas and they secure knowledge without price.

They also secure GOOD SHOES at a fair price and thereby improve their understanding.

58 YEARS SELLING GOOD SHOES.

THE IRISH PARTY.

Liberal Leaders All at Sea at the Present Time.

NO ONE NOW TO LEAD THEM.

The British Government Determined to Push the Land Purchase Bill Through Parliament Which Will Entirely Reverse the Present Situation — Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Liberal leaders will hold a meeting shortly to determine upon a course of action. At present they are at sea, and this dilemma is not likely to be relieved by any change in the leadership of the Irish party, as there is no such party to lead in the cohesive sense in which the term has heretofore been applied. The Home Rule issue is considered out of the way, and a strong feeling against any plan of land purchase for Ireland is developing itself.

Mr. Labouchere has all along been opposed to pledging English credit for any such purpose as aiding tenants to become proprietors, and he has many sympathizers both in the Liberal and Conservative ranks. The government, however, is determined to push the land purchase scheme, and will be aided by Mr. Parnell and his supporters, thus entirely reversing the present situation in parliament. The Tories continue to treat Mr. Parnell with consideration, and there is marked relaxation of the severely critical tone in which he has been discussed by the Conservative press.

To an inquirer yesterday Lord Hartington states that even if the Home Rule question should be shelved, there could be no breach between the Conservative and Liberal Unionists until Irish issues have been fully and satisfactorily disposed of. This much the Liberal Unionists owed to Lord Salisbury and his cabinet.

The Unionists are starting an active canvas of their party in Scotland, where in many constituencies, there has heretofore been no opposition to the Gladstone Liberal candidates.

From Tipperary comes word of that the tenants have seized the opportunity of the demolition of the Home Rule cause to make their peace with Smith-Evans, and are about to reoccupy their deserted farms. The recent trial brought out that a considerable number of the tenants had hesitated in joining the plan of campaign and giving up their property, in which many of them had invested much money, one tenant, for instance, paying a ground rent of £20 a year for an estate which he and his father had improved at an expense of £3,000. Tenants of this class have been specially anxious to make arrangements with their landlord, and are embracing this occasion to do so. Now Tipperary is said to be almost deserted by business, while the boycotted shopkeepers of the old town are regaining trade.

The Newfoundland Question.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—A dispatch from Paris says that M. Ribot, minister of foreign affairs, said regarding the Newfoundland question: "As to the notion of the Newfoundlanders annexing themselves to the United States, there is no fear of that. They would have the whole British fleet to deal with."

All Quiet Now.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 4.—The recent ministerial crisis grew out of a dispute between President De Fonseca and the members of his cabinet regarding the punishment of those officers who were implicated in the wrecking of the offices of The Tribune newspaper. The affair has been satisfactorily arranged.

Parnell Confident.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—Mr. Parnell expresses himself as confident of retaining supremacy in the Irish party. The feeling among his adherents is that his position is stronger than at any previous stage of the dispute, and especially by reason of the assurances of support received from America.

Can't Compete With Italians.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—A report from the British consul in Uruguay warns British emigrants against settling in that country, whether they are laborers, agriculturists or artisans, as they cannot compete with the Italians in the matter of low wages and miserable living.

Coiton Mills Burned.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—Fire has damaged the mills of the Coventry Cotton Spinning company to the extent of many thousand pounds. Two hundred working people are deprived of employment in consequence.

Jack the Ripper's Work.

BERNE, Dec. 4.—The body of a young peasant girl, so horribly mutilated as to suggest the handiwork of a Jack the Ripper, has been found in a forest in the vicinity of this city.

THAT HONDURAS REVOLT.

Sanchez Had but One Ambition and That Was to Become President.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—The steamer Stillwater, which arrived at her wharf Tuesday morning from Puerto Cortez, brings the latest information of the recent revolt in Spanish Honduras. Most of the facts are covered by the following letter from the acting British consul at Tegucigalpa:

"On the night of the 11th Bogran's forces were encamped on a hill just behind Tegucigalpa and Sanchez was trying to shell them out with bombshells. I might have gotten into the city, but as Gen. Sanchez had most of the merchants and others of the principal people in jail and was demanding a ransom of from $5,000 to $20,000 I thought that my place was outside. The troops began to come in on the morning of the 12th, and at night an attack was made at Tegucigalpa and one of the quartel of barracks was captured and other good positions taken. On the morning of the 13th the fighting commenced in good style, and before dark Sanchez was driven to the quartel San Francisco, but as he had all the cannons in that place it became necessary to give that place a very wide berth, but during the night barricades were made and Bogran's forces, with two small cannons, commenced to bombard the quartel. Sanchez tried to escape on the morning of the 15th. In the darkness and under cover of the fire of some men that he had left in the quartel he sneaked out well mounted with the president's horses. He was followed and made a stand to fight them when he saw it was impossible to escape. Nearly all his men were killed, wounded or taken prisoners. He had only fifteen men with him. He fought, however, until he was wounded, and then ran to a house and shot himself in the mouth, the bullet coming out of the back of his head. The living were made prisoners and Sanchez's body was brought to this city so the people could see he was dead. Two of his sons have been killed and another has been taken prisoner. He, with most of the rest of the captives, will be shot in a few days. At present the city is full of troops and more are arriving every hour, but they will not be needed. The palace and many other houses have been shot full of holes with cannon balls. Our store did not receive a single shot. My English flag was shot full of holes. I came into the city with Bogran, as one of his bodyguards, and all the other foreigners fought for him, as we all looked on Sanchez as a robber and murderer."

The letter confirms the report of Col. Baker's death, and states that Bogran, fearing that his men would do bodily harm to Col. Baker, who was not then in favor with the government, sent a military escort to conduct him to a place of safety, but the colonel met his death before the troops arrived. The body was taken in charge by the resident foreigners and buried the following day. There is no danger of a serious outbreak as there was no general dissatisfaction felt toward Bogran's administration. Sanchez's sole object in betraying the trust as commandant of the department of Tegucigalpa and wishing to murder the man who had made him what he was, was to overthrow the present government and re-establish himself as president. He failed, and the people of Spanish Honduras, as especially the foreigners have ever cause to rejoice over his downfall, for he was opposed to the prominence accorded foreigners and hostile to the government's acceding it.

DRUNK FIFTEEN YEARS.

A Curious Confession Preceding a Novel Lawsuit.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—A most remarkable confession that forms the basis of an equally remarkable suit, is the salient feature of a petition submitted yesterday by Charles Guillemot, through his counsel, Edward Gubard, to Judge Andrews, in supreme court chambers. In the petition, which was granted, Mr. Guillemot simply asked for an order directing Benjamin C. Wetmore to appear before referee for examination, the object being to elicit from such testimony the necessary facts upon which to form a complaint in a suit to be brought by Guillemot in the supreme court against Mr. Wetmore.

The proposed suit in which the same was served on Monday, is, according to the preliminary comments in the petition, to cancel a certain alleged contract or assignment of Mr. Guillemot's interest or right in a trust fund established by his father, John Howland, formerly a lawyer of this city, who died some twenty years ago and whose will was admitted to probate shortly following his death. And now comes the curious part of the story and the first confession made by Mr. Guillemot. He says that W. C. Wetmore, the father of Benjamin C. Wetmore, the defendant in this suit, qualified as executor under the will of Mr. Howland, who left an estate valued at $50,000 and three children, one of whom being himself. Out of the estate he was given $80,000 absolutely. The will established a trust fund for the benefit of Mrs. Marie Adelde Seize Howland, the widow of Mr. Howland, with directions that upon her death the same be divided equally among the three children.

This trust fund, from affidavits filed in the surrogate's court in 1878, he says, then amounted to $18,844. Mrs. Howland is living in Paris, France, but old and feeble and likely to die at any time, while the trust in question must be distributed according to the provisions of her husband's will. After stating the above facts very clearly, and with every indication of a lucid and tenacious memory, Mr. Guillemot says that his memory of occurrences between 1870 and 1885 is altogether vague. The fact was, as he puts it, that between these dates, a period of fifteen years, he was habitually drunk and wholly engrossed in the reckless endeavor to get rid of the $80,000 legacy left him by his father, in which he concedes he was unsuccessful. During this interval he says Mr. Benjamin C. Wetmore got him to sign away his interest in the trust fund in question, and it is to recover back this interest that he has instituted the present action. Mr. Wetmore gives a most emphatic denial to the accusations made against him by Mr. Guillemot. He pronounces it a blackmailing suit.

NOT WITHOUT HOPE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The family of Benjamin H. Campbell, the North Side millionaire, still hopes that he will be found alive and well. The lake had a fascination for him and the family is led to believe that he may have gone to the docks and taken passage for a trip to some port.

THE WRONG MAN KILLED.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 4.—Yesterday morning unknown robbers entered the house of Mrs. Carey, a wealthy widow residing at Sewell, took her from bed, bound and gagged her and secured about $1,000 in money which was in the house. Two of the robbers were subsequently captured, but soon escaped, and in the exchange of shots which followed, a citizen named Mason was shot.

CARRIAGE FACTORY BURNED.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 4.—George S. Norbeck's carriage factory, in this city, was burned this morning. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $9,000.

Worth Knowing.

A pie or custard will not burn if in the oven with a dish of water.

Shrunken, half-worn bed-blankets or comforters, past using on a bed, make good to put under a stair carpet.

Spots of grease may be removed from wall paper by laying upon them several rolls of blotting paper, and holding a hot iron to it until the grease is absorbed.

To sweep room without raising a dust, scatter damp grass or dampened bits of paper over the carpet. This not only prevents the flying of dust, but saves the carpet from wear and tear. Either grass or paper is better than tea leaves or bran (often recommended), as the former leaves no stain or spot.
